Our Town Election.

The numicipal election last Saturday resulted in a signal triumph for the People's Conservative ticket for Town traduced and enthusiastically adopted: Trustees. The gentlemen elected, headed by J. E. Fogie, Esq., were elected on a platform pledging them to the payment of the College hullding bombs and become a candidate for the office of the maintenance of the school, and Lientenant Governor. That in view of being gentlemen of integrity, we have his eminent qualifications for this high no reason to doubt that they will conscientiously redeem their piedges. Altogether the friends of our noble school have no reason to apprehend danger to t from the new Board.

Alexander's Hotel.

While in Louisville recently we were the guest of this popular hotel and gel ticket No. I, the second ticket No. found that it justly deserves the reputation it enjoys. The house has been thoroughly refurnished from cellar to garret with new carpets, matresses and all necessary furniture for the comfort of guests. An adjoining building with several rooms has been rented and furnished. The larder contains ample supplies, in fact, everything life market affords for the comfort of the inner man, which is always served in style to suit the the most fastidious taste. The servants are attentive and pointe; the cierks, A. W. Jones and John Sullivau, are gentlemanly and accommodating in the discharge of their dulies; the landlord, Jo B. Alexander, is one of the most genial and social gentleman in the world, and never tires in his efforts to make his guests feel at home. When you go to Louisville on business or pleasure stop with Alexander, and our word for it, you will be well pleased.
